just a little question,

What are you people doing in front of my shop?

The thing is I have an abnormal ability, that allows me to see the inside of others' mind, even when they do not allow it

Just do take this much longer at me say, and we won't catch our temper!

Ah, I can't carry my arm. I have no gas left. There is pay for the gas and hospital fees, is not in your list?

This person breaks her arm, when a car sped past us without looking at their mirror!!

My eyes reflect what your real thoughts are

...Only you's you go to the hospital to verify your arm is really broken, Momomi...and get me all then your lying...

Unknown to them I peer into their pupils and see what their true intentions are.

It's possible

You were slender back then as well

No, it was impossible

I had one fun with you guys. I just put on a mask and say that I had fun

Ah, that's right in senior high we were in the basketball team. It was better for you than any instrument

I wish I had known

There's a difference between you and your own desire

By the way
what are you really doing here?

He was the only person who knew of my

only friend,
always looking out for me...

ever since

After

even like this he still

you

What's more, I will give him

Previously during our same lesson,
certain feelings were... I

My

This seems too much...*
